Princeton University Reunions and Commencement have finally arrived.

The community is invited to enjoy the festivities at the fabulous Princeton University Reunions Lawn Concert and Fireworks on Saturday, June 1.

Bring a blanket or chair to Finney and Campbell Fields next to Princeton Stadium to join in the fun. The concert starts at 8:00 p.m. and will be followed by a spectacular fireworks show starting at 9:15 p.m. All are invited to attend.

And don't forget to mark your calendar to come back to campus later this month to attend Falsettos, the first Princeton Summer Theater show of the 2019 season or to take a tour of the new Miracles of the Border: Retablos of Mexican Migrants to the United States exhibition at the Princeton University Art Museum.

Summer is a great time to come enjoy the campus!

Theater

Princeton Summer Theater opens its 50th season with Falsettos. The show is a touching, funny musical about a modern New York family: Marvin, a charming gay man, his lover, his ex-wife, his psychiatrist, his young son, and his lesbian neighbors. Set at the turn of the 1980's, Falsettos is a beautiful picture of love and its messy complications. Tickets required. June 20-23 and 27-30; times vary; Hamilton Murray Theater.

Podcast

The Princeton University podcast, "She Roars" celebrates women on, from and around the Princeton campus who are having extraordinary impact in their communities, the nation, and beyond. The 13th episode features Kathleen Biggins, founder of C-Change Conversations. Kathleen explains why she launched the non-profit with a group of other Princeton women and how they’re changing minds about climate change— one non-partisan conversation at a time.

Lectures
The Disability Alliance at Princeton hosts a lunch and learn titled Breaking Down Mental Health Stigma in the Workplace. RSVP to Donna Maywar by June 10 at 609-258-9529 or dmaywar@princeton.edu. Wednesday, June 12; 12:00 pm; Julis Romo Rabinowitz, Room B60.

Music

Princeton University Orchestra returns to Finney Field for its annual reunions concert. Stick around for fireworks after the performance. Saturday, June 1; 8:00 pm; Finney Field.

New Jersey Symphony Orchestra presents its Blockbuster All-Orchestral Season Finale. Tickets required. Friday, June 7; 8:00 pm; Alexander Hall, Richardson Auditorium.

Princeton University Summer Chamber Concerts kicks off its 52nd season with Horszowski Piano Trio. The program includes Haydn, Schumann and Shostakovich. Tickets are free, reservations are required. Thursday, June 20; 7:30 pm: Alexander Hall, Richardson Auditorium.

The Summer Chamber Concerts series continues with PUBLIQuartet. The group will play pieces by Princeton's own Caroline Shaw and Shelley Washington, as well as music by John Corigliano and Dvorak. Tickets are free, reservations are required. Thursday, June 27; 7:30 pm: Alexander Hall, Richardson Auditorium.

Art

Princeton University Art Museum

Miracles on the Border: Retablos of Mexican Migrants to the United States. This exhibition presents more than 50 Mexican retablos, folk paintings dedicated to Christ, the Virgin Mary, or saints to commemorate a miraculous event. Vibrant and emotive, they span the entirety of the 20th century, serving as both historical documents and as public expressions of suffering, salvation, faith and family. The retablos on view were offered by Mexican migrants at churches and pilgrimage sites in western Mexico and the United States to record the difficulties of crossing the U.S.-Mexico border. They eloquently relate subjects of greatest concern to the migrants, from the difficulty of finding work or falling sick in a foreign land to the relief of returning home. Through, July 7.

Gainsborough's Family Album. Through June 9.
Confronting Childhood. Through June 9.

Special Events
Discover the Art Museum's premier collections spanning antiquity to contemporary in a Highlights Tour, offered free of charge. Tours meet at the entrance to the Museum. Saturdays and Sundays; 2 pm; Art Museum.

The Art Museum hosts Walking Histories: Race and Protest at Princeton and in Trenton. This series of performance walks walks through the Princeton University campus, created by theater artist Aaron Landsman and historian Alison Isenberg in collaboration with Princeton students, examines how issues of race and protest, in Trenton and on campus, are imprinted on Princeton's buildings and grounds. Saturday, June 1; 10:30 am; Art Museum Lobby.

Art for Families
Take an Artful Adventure around the world and through the ages. This series of self-guided tours and activities is available for families at all times. Pick up your Passport to Adventure at the Museum information desk and choose from our many Artful Adventures activity guides. Once you complete your adventure, visit the information desk to collect a sticker for your passport.

Other Exhibitions
A retrospective of recent additions to Princeton University Library's special collections, "Welcome Additions: Selected Acquisitions 2012-18" is now on view in the new Ellen and Leonard Milberg Gallery in Firestone Library. Through June 23; 12:00 pm to 6:00 pm; Firestone Library, lobby.

Final Runnings Before the After is a group exhibition of recent work by graduating seniors in the Program in Visual Arts, curated by faculty member Nathan Carter. Through June 5; 10:00 am-8:30 pm; Lewis Arts complex, Hurley Gallery.

Science
Princeton Plasma Physics Laboratory offers free public tours led by an engineer or physicist on the first and third Friday of most months at 10 a.m., at 100 Stellarator Road, Princeton, New Jersey. This month's tours are June 7 and 21. You must pre-register at to attend; click here to register.

Images
Art
Thomas Gainsborough. Mary and Margaret Gainsborough, the Artist's Daughters, Playing with a Cat, ca. 1760-61. Oil on canvas, 75.6 × 62.9 cm. The National Gallery, London. Bought, 1923

Science
Visitors with a plasma ball and other plasma demonstrations in PPPL's Science Education Laboratory.